

ONE OF THE FINER DAYS

© Anouschka Pearlman

I leave you with your shadow on my shoulder
My stunted dreams, my heart a little colder, and tomorrows rainbow in my eyes
You see me only getting older
There's a restless girl inside,
No one can control her
There's just so much love and life left to try
'Cause you said you'd love me forever,
And as long as we stayed together,
Things would only get better and better-
You were wrong, you were wrong, you were wrong

When you told me that you'd hold me,
God forgive me, I believed you, I was only dreaming
Let's just say, that was One of the Finer Days.
I believed you, tried to please you,
Did everything and anything I could do-
Lets just say that was One of the Finer Days

You'll tell me-
I don't know what I'm saying
I'm in one of those moods
Where my mind keeps changing
But they'll be something in my eyes
That stops you from holding on...

When you told me that you'd hold me,
God forgive me, I believed you, I was only dreaming
Let's just say, that was One of the Finer Days
I believed you, tried to please you,
Did everything and anything I could do-
Lets just say that was One of the Finer Days

I leave with your sadness in my smile
I leave because our kingdom it is crashing-
Doubt has entered Paradise
When you told me that you'd hold me,
God forgive me, I believed you, I was only dreaming
Let's just say, that was One of the Finer Days.
I believed you, tried to please you,
Did everything and anything I could do-
Lets just say that was One of the Finer Days
Lets just say that was One of the Finer Days
