

To You, O God

Neil Stephens

♩ = 80

SOPRANO 1

E A E A E

1. I'm sor - ry for my
2. What tongue will praise You

6

A B C#m

sin, I'm grate-ful for Your grace; the fail-ure of my flesh for ev-er - more emore than one that's been made free? Once bro-ken, bound, and stained, now un-con-demned and raised. And as Your mer-cy flows so ev-er-more will be the ri-ver of my clean. And when my heart is tired and my re-solve has failed, You flood my soul with 12

9

A A B

C#m A A E B/F# E

praise, a ne-ver-end-ing stream, a ne-ver end-ing stream. Come Mer-cy, flow, life drawn from Your liv-ing well, drawn from Your liv-ing well.

16

E/G# A B E B/F# E

— and flood my soul, — for ev-er I'll wor - ship You! Your praise my song

20

E/G# A B G# C#m B E

— for a - ges long, — ne-ver to end! — And when this world, — it fades from view,

24

A B C#m A
last time to coda

— Hea- ven and Earth — are all made new, — still I — will sing — to You, O God!

29 E | 2. C D Em C D G C D Em D

to You, O God!

37 E C D Em C D G

In - tent to wor - ship_ You, - O God of End - less_ song!_ To

43 C D Em D E to chorus m. 15

sing your praise, e - ter - nal and_ be - yond!

47 ⊕ CODA E A E A E

to You, O God!