The force of good it has been reawakened
The Force of good it has, it's been reawakened

The hour has come for the power of belief
That the good in us all / is about to be released

The force of good has been reawakened

Don't be fooled by the lies in the tweets
Don't be cajoled by politicians on TV
Don't be silent about dividing families
Because the good in us all / is about to be released

Reawakened, reawakened, reawakened
The force of good it has been reawakened

Don't be shy about your equality
Don't be quiet when they fence in the free
Don't be violent when they interrupt the peace
Because the good in us all / is about to be released

Reawakened, reawakened, reawakened
The force of good it has been reawakened

The hour has come for the power of belief
That the good in us all / is about to be released

The hour has come for the power of belief
That the good in us all / is about to be released

The force of good it has been reawakened
The Force of good it has been reawakened

Are you reawoke?

- The Lonely Lie So Easily -

© 2017 by Patrick Ames.

I talked to Michael
Just the other week
For hours he told me
He liked living in that city
His job he loved so completely
The lonely lie so easily

I met with Becca
Down at the bakery
All she wants is kids
Sip coffee and have a sweet
We talked about the past
She Smiled protectively
The lonely lie so easily

I mentioned Sally
In a conversation with Jane
That Martin had passed by here
And didn't get off the train
And Sally said quite out loud
'I guess it's time to celebrate'
The lonely lie so easily

I asked the Bartender
For some paper and ink
So I could write these lyrics
How about another drink?
He looked me in the eyes
'Can you get home tonight'
The lonely lie so easily

- The Meaning of Life -

Can you help me with you help me get through
Baby darling It's time to choose

Can you decide
In Your mind
That its time
And realize
You it's time to choose

I don't understand why we have to sprint through life
But I comprehend we only have one chance to get it right
So baby please, please won't you finally decide

On Me / with you / you know / we'll get through /The meaning of life

- This Small Town -

© 2017 by Patrick Ames.

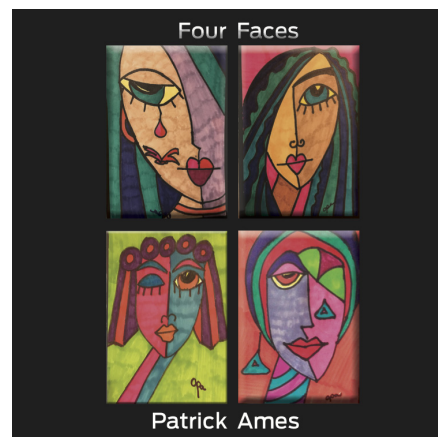

This small town / has too few streets
When I walk down / everyone recognizes me
They all know / I've been going to your house
So tonight I've decided, I'm gonna kiss you on your mouth

I walked in to town today
Just to buy these brand new clothes
And along the way I picked these
Each one's a different rose

This small town, it's what I like This small town it's gonna last us all our lives

I love you / I want you to know that Cause it feels sooo natural / just, just like it's fact
Like it was written in a book / then made into a movie
Like that one we saw last week, I held your hand and you squeezed

I walked in to town today
And I bought these brand new clothes
And along the way I picked these
Each one's a different rose
