Song & Story Presenters

For Liberal Minded Congregations

Sunday Services, Weekday Workshops & Full Concerts

Bill & Eli Perras have shared their “Song and Story” messages with many Unitarian Universalist and other liberal minded church congregations during Sunday morning church services over the past several years, and currently 9 separate, 25-30 minute long “Song and Story” programs. These presentations are perfect to fill an open pulpit due to ministerial vacations as well as for lay led congregations.

Deeply steeped in the folk music tradition, they present sing-alongs (usually their original compositions), after telling the stories that relate to the song, which creates a powerful, and uplifting experience and message, and they are always more than happy to lead all of the music during a service with songs relating to the theme of the service.

Since music has a unique way of reaching out to people, and since Bill & Eli have a sizable, and always growing fan-base, a fringe benefit is to having them lead a service is that typical attendance at well-publicized services is often 20-30% higher than average.

Besides sharing their Songs & Stories at Sunday services, Bill & Eli are always open to perform 2-hour benefit concerts on the Saturday night prior, or on the Sunday afternoon after a service, or share their messages in a weekday workshop format.

Bill & Eli's Short Biography

The many inspired lyrics given to and interpreted by Eli, combined with Bill's bluesy finger-style guitar playing create a very uniquely modern take on true Americana music in its purest form. Receiving much recognition for their tightly woven musical creativity, they humbly remain true to their personal values. They speak out with strong heartfelt lyrics, accompanied with a soulful genuine pentatonic voicing, against social injustices, corporate greed, and daily follies in everyday life. They can grip your heart, search your soul, change a mindset, or softly strike a funny bone, all the while leaving the audience with a sentiment for the common good we desire in all mankind.

Bill & Eli have opened or shared the stage with many nationally recognized entertainers and are regulars at many Florida folk music venues and festivals while frequently traveling beyond the Sunshine State with their songs and stories.
