

SistaVille is the recently formed country music outfit fronted by Melbourne artist Michelle Parsons.

Embracing their love of country music, the TV show Nashville, and a good pair of cowboy boots, SistaVille came together to deliver their favourite toe tappin', boot scootin', can't help smilin' and dancin' country rock covers.

Renowned for her incredible vocals and on-stage presence Michelle and SistaVille have their own unique style, energy and brand of country music. Combining old, new, 90's line dancing, indy and original country tunes, they will have you feeling like you're in a Nashville Honky Tonk.

Sista Michelle Parsons (lead vocals & guitar), Sista Jacqui Morrison (drums & vocals), Sista Annemieke (Lead Guitar) and Sista Monique Kenny (Bass Guitar).
