

SAINT SEBASTIAN

FILM TEAM

SEAN MARC NIPPER

Sean Marc Nipper, owner of Reel House Films, is an up-and-coming film maker from Ashland, Oregon. Sean attended the Academy of Art University in San Francisco then moved back to Ashland a couple years ago to pursue his passion of telling visual story telling and film making. Sean Once shared a practice space with Greg in Ashland Oregon so it's only fitting to have him direct the music video for "Down".

CHRIS VANDERSCHAAF

Chris has a variety of skills in film production such as PA, grip, gaffer, electric, prop master, producer, craft services, DIT, director, AC, 2nd AC, DP, AD, but he favors/specializes in post production work as an animator, colorist, compositor and editor. Chris' experience in the industry includes working on Gary Lundgren's Black Road, TV shows for MTV, CMT, ABC, NBC, CBS, toy commercials for FLF films, and sports commercials for Playstation, Nike, Adidas, etc.

MIG WINDOWS

(Production Coordinator/Writer/Actress "Princess") is one of the founders of Row 211 Films, a new video production company in the Rogue Valley. She wrote and directed the films "Not A Bench" (Klamath Independent Film Festival Grand Jury Prize Winner 2015) and "I Never Can" (Killer Valley Horror Film Festival, Silver Dollar Film Festival.) Acting credits include "The Truth About Daisies," "Dear Future Self," and "Redwood Highway," among others.