

C-instr.

Maybe Once You'll Let Me Win

Andy Fite

Medium slow pop, seriously

D Cadd9 G

Love, I don't know why we have to fight___ the way___ we do And why it al-ways seems you were right by the time we're through. I do_____ learn a lot, it's true_____ But may - be if you___ could lose___ one, you might learn some-thing too.____

3 D Cadd9 G A

6 Em G

8 A Em G

11 $\text{\textcircled{S}}$ D Cadd9 G

Love, I don't know why we can't just face each oth - er's needs___ love, as if the on - ly thing that mat - tered was to love,___

13 D Cadd9 G

___ And why we nev - er bend___ an inch___ with - out___ con - ___ and as if be - ing here___ to - ge - ther were___ the

15 A Em G $\text{\textcircled{F}}$ test - ing_____ some points in the game we play___ Though why we should main thing?_____ Which is how it is for me_____ But darl - ing when play this way is one of those fun-ny old mys-ter - ies.

18 A Em C

21 G D/F#

Could-n't we just a-gree to dis - a-gree? Oh, could-n't we ev-en just a - gree

23 Em7 A7 D.S. al Coda

— that we a - gree on some few things at least and be con - tent to

Coda

25 A Em C

we be-gin I'm drawn right in, you see...

28 Bm Em F#7

Love, I don't like fight-ing, This end-less fight-ing, It's wear-ing thin.

31 GMaj7 A7(9) G/B

— But if you love me, as I love you, love, then may-be

34 Em7 A7 D C G D

once, maybe once you'll let me win.