

WALK DVDs by PETER KEARNEY

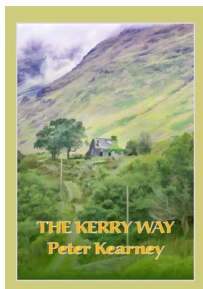

SIDE TRACKS OF THE SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS

Peter's most recent DVD featuring various hikes, walks and strolls in the area of Australia (Mittagong-Bowral) where he has lived and walked for more than 35 years. Elements of local history are woven through the presentation with the help of archival photos. Peter's narration & photos with evocative music. Duration 71 mins.

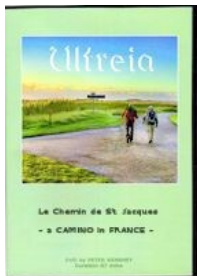

SURPRISING IRELAND—DEEPER HOME

Peter's narration and photographs with Irish music. Includes visits to Glendalough, Killarney National Park and the Dingle Peninsula, Connemara in County Galway and a pilgrimage walk on the holy mountain of Croagh Patrick. The journey concludes near the Mournes in County Down, with a walk to the neolithic Goward Dolmen - a 'big stone' and lasting symbol of Peter's family history. Duration 77 mins.

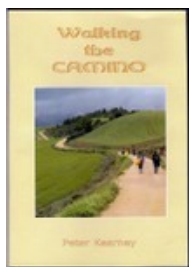

THE KERRY WAY—IRELAND

A 10-day walk around the Iveragh Peninsula in the west of Ireland, beginning and ending in Killarney. Probably Ireland's most famous national waymarked trail. Includes a diversion to Skellig Michael, a steep rocky island off the coast of County Kerry, world-heritage site of an ancient monastic village. Peter's narration and photographs with Irish music. Duration—70 mins.

ULTREIA! The CAMINO in FRANCE.

Le Puy to St. Jean Pied-de-Port. After walking the Spanish camino, Peter walked another Camino path, all in France, ending where most caminos start. Walked by fewer people compared to Spain, yet this path is just as ancient, interesting and beautiful. Peter's narration & photos with appropriate music. Duration 87 mins.

WALKING THE CAMINO - SPAIN.

St. Jean Pied-de-Port to Santiago. The most popular Camino route. Beautiful landscapes, ancient villages, interesting pilgrims, useful information. Easily the best account of the Camino I have seen. Peter's selection of music, his language and voice accompany a brilliant array of photos". (John Dawson) Duration—84 minutes. "
