

Developing Teamwork to Build a Master Hunter with Carol Cassity

June 13-15, 2015

This seminar will focus on Transition to Advanced level work to help people that want to advance beyond junior and senior hunter level work as well as those that already compete at the higher levels. For example: how to break down a triple for training purposes; identifying suction and factors, paying particular attention to the handler's role dealing with such. Carol will provide comments and suggestions on each run. All attendees are encouraged to ask questions about the working dogs throughout the seminar.
