

Desert Sky

Jeff Berkley & Dave Howard

You can't Lie
To the desert sky
You can just survive
Or lay down and die

Cause mother nature
Won't explain
The rules are simple
Just behave

There is a fire from above
There is a darkness fighting love
There are a million ways
To give up on yourself and who you love
There is always a way to find the shade
Always a home that you have made
Your heart is a shelter and a place to feel safe
Don't hide it all away

You can't run
From the midnight sun
No way to stop the carousel
Once it's begun

You can't see
The horizon's end
The sunrise comes
Like a long lost friend

The world that you know is a cloudy reflection
There's no need to find a cure for your imperfection

[Chorus]
