

Blood On A Rose

Calman Hart

Shrouded like tears in the rain
The promise of love I've been searching for in vain

I know that it's there, I feel it inside
It's somewhere nobody knows
Hiding in plain sight
Like blood on a rose

It lies like a diamond in the snow
It sparkles and shines if I turn my head just so

[chorus]

What good are my eyes?
I might as well be blind
Either way it's just as hard to find

[chorus]
