Chorus:

It's a helluva highway, where I've been
There's ain't no rules on the road, except to keep on movin'
It's a helluva highway, the road I'm on
And in the blink of the twinkle in your eye I'll be gone

Mama named me Atchison Topeka
But my friends call me Santa Fe
I've been runnin' like a cat of fire ever
Since I saw the light of day
Never stop anywhere long enough
To let my motor cool down
When the sun comes up, I'll be packin' my bags
And movin' to another town

[chorus]

I broke more hearts than Elvis
Burned more bridges than the Viet Cong
I'm not trying to hurt nobody
I'm just trying to move along
There's gypsy blood runnin' through my veins
I tried but I can't keep still
I've lived my life like a runaway train
And I guess I always will

[chorus]
