

Never Leave Again

Jeff Berkley & Dani Carroll

The sun came up
Over open skies
And the dust
From the wind
Left a burn in my eyes
When my truck pulled in
I almost did cry
When I saw them tears
Comin' down from your eyes

It's the home
That I know so well
I can hardly tell I've been gone
It's the last time I'll turn that bend
If I ever leave again

By the blood shot moon
With no headlights
I turned that bend
Just one last time
Our love went out
Like a flickering light
I'm a highway tramp
It's the songs that decide

[Chorus]

[Instr. Solo]
