Album Description

Meandering acoustic folk explorations for introspection, traveling, cleaning the house or taking a walk.

01 "Post-Midnight Meandering"

I went for a walk at 2am
To breathe the breath of spring
I went for a walk at 2am
To breathe the breath of spring
I crossed the street to a wooded trail
Unlit and open to the sky

The crowd, the road and songs?

CHORUS

'Cause we ain't getting nowhere
Standing right here
And we're making very slow progress
With the way things are going this year

VERSE 2

How about doing what
We feel is right?
How about taking a rest
From this bullshit for a night?
How about letting the sun
Shine on us for awhile?
Instead of all of this
Artificial light?

CHORUS

'Cause we ain't getting nowhere
Standing right here
And we're making very slow progress
With the way things are going this year

...this year
...this year

GUITAR SOLO (LunaTrek)

How about living the life
We want to?
How about working for the life
We want to lead?
How about spending time
Doing what we love?
How about making a choice
Instead of the choice making us?

CHORUS

'Cause we ain't getting nowhere
Standing right here
And we're making very slow progress

This is my art
My expression for you
In a writing session or two

BRIDGE 2

I hope I tickled you in the right spot
This is my art, I hope you feel it in your heart
That's right
I hope you feel it baby
Hope you feel it too
Alright

C'mon now...
C'mon now

INTERLUDE 1

Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello baby

Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello baby

VERSE 6

Hello baby, ohh
Do you care to sate me?
Hmm, you could do such real things
The stuff that makes hearts sing

VERSE 7

Hello honey
Well you're beautiful and funny
Some people me nervous
But you put me at ease

BRIDGE 3

Maybe I'm sayin' too much
As a matter of fact I probably am
But you're a ray of sunshine
And you make me feel good again
Feel good again...ahh

All dressed up for occasions
My hunger persists always
I blame it on Americanization
Some dentists fill up holes
Like drunken graveyard diggers
Most underground musicians have Much more heart than these Sony singers

CHORUS 1

But it's gone out the window
If you love something you let it go
At least my mother told me so
The cage was left open
The blue sky looks so inviting
I guess freedom knocked the cage door in
But I miss him so dearly
Mr. Bluebird come back home
I'll leave the window always open

VERSE 2

I've walked through gray-toned dungeons
Dressed up for the inquisition
And scared by tortured corpses
I readily questioned my religion
We need more wood in the fireplace
Due to current circumstances
And as a boy from the United States
I knew all the diplomatic dances

CHORUS 2

But it's gone out the window
If you love something you let it go
At least my mother told me so
The cage was left open
The blue sky looks so inviting
I guess freedom knocked the cage door in
But I miss him so dearly
Mr. Bluebird come back home
I'll always leave the porch light on
... the porch light on

I've coveted emotions

(Chilled sugar apples)
Yellow and blue make green
(Just like movies over radios)
I wish the two of us could be
(Just like movies over radios)
So yellow and so blue that we become green

And we become green
(And chilled sugar apples)
We become green
(Chilled sugar ... apples)
We becoooooome green
(Over radios, over radios ...)
(Over radios ...)
(Over radios ...)
(Over radios ...)
(Over radios ...)

08 "Would You"

Would you avoid the pain
Just to remain the same as you are now?
Would you avoid the pain
Just to remain the same as you are now?
To sit by the window watching
As other people come and go ... winning and losing?

There's no growth in that
There's no growth in that
