Presidents Message

I wonder how many members realize how much planning, paperwork, contracts, and calls go into putting on our Specialty, Banquet and Auction. With that being said, combined with our 2014 Specialty, we have undertaken the task of having a fund raiser on Saturday, February 1st. We will be hosting a "Pat Hastings" seminar. We stand to clear quite a bit from this as we did when we had her come in Perry, GA a few years ago. It is a great money making project but we need volunteers to step up and help. I am asking every member to volunteer in some way to help out at our 2014 Specialty, Banquet/Auction or at the Pat Hastings seminar. Please send your name to me at jonboy5@msn.com and let me know that you are willing to help.

We will be needing people for the show committee, the Auction and help with the seminar. Other ways to help is contributions to the trophy fund, items for the auction, people to make calls to procure items for the Auction. If you have ideas, do not hesitate to me know.

On another note, I look forward to seeing a packed room at the Holiday Inn on Tuesday, May 7. Sue Bess has worked hard to get a program set up for us. Let's show our appreciation to her and to our guest by attending. Dr Carol Amos and Dr Zack Miles will be our speakers on vaccines and fee control. Should be an interesting and informative program.

Alice Alford, President

WHO IS A RESCUER?

Who is a rescuer? Each of us is a rescuer. We take responsibility for those puppies we breed and take them back without question. If we hear of a dog in crisis and know who the breeder is, we contact the breeder knowing that they will handle the situation well. If a dog from a back yard breeder or puppy mill comes into rescue, we hurt for the dog; we offer assistance as best we can, we are all rescuers. Whether you are one of the unsung heroes who fosters a needy dog, makes a home visit, raises money, donates money, transports a dog to a new home, says a prayer, you are all rescuers. Not everyone can do the day to day work of a rescuer because they know, in their heart, that they couldn't deal with the pain seen in the eyes of a Cavalier in need without suffering deeply themselves. But they are also rescuers, because they are the ones who give the moral support to those who, in their hearts, know they couldn't do less than to deal with that pain.

This doesn't mean that one is a lesser person or one a better person, it just means that we know our own limitations and what we are personally capable of dealing with in this particular situation. I salute each of you as my heroes. You are all rescuers and for that I thank you. Just keep one thing in mind, when you see an email, a post on a list, or an article with "rescue" in the subject line or in the title, don't delete it or skip that article, take a moment to read it to see if, by chance, there is something you can do to help one of our less fortunate Cavaliers. That to me is the definition of a rescuer. (From the ACKCS Rescue Trust website)

PLEASE consider donating to the ACKCS Rescue Trust to help us help the cavaliers who need our love the most. You can do so online on the website (www.cavalierrescuetrust.org) in ANY amount. Consider purchasing a stadium blanket or T-shirt in the Rescue Trust store. Take a few minutes and visit the Rescue Trust website and view the amazing video of our cavaliers.

Our Rescue Trust district director is Gaylon Dodson and coordination of our rescues is done through him. We need foster homes so very badly, so please consider fostering when we are in overload and our pet parent fosters cannot take on anymore. Some have 2 fosters in their homes in addition to their pets in a family home. If you would like to help, please contact Gaylon at gaylon@caddocavies.com so he is aware of your ability to assist the Rescue Trust.
