

YOUR LOVE

Since I was born I have been dying
My heart is worn from all the striving
You never let me go, no You never let me go

From the highest heights to the deepest sea
Your love it reaches me
How high, how wide, how long, how deep
Your love it reaches me

Your grace is enough to catch me from falling
You've overcome these valleys I'm walking
You never let me go, no you never let me go

Your love it reaches me
Your love it sets me free
Your love is all i need
