

FOREVER

Despite the things I've done, in love You sent Your son
To bear the cross that should be mine
Life has been so unfair, but just when I despair
Like the morning sun you shine

Forever I'll seek to find You, forever I'll stand beside you
Make me the one you shine through Lord

You're the one that I reach for, when the world is falling down, the one I'm sure
You're the one that I adore; You're the miracle I've found, and I need more
You are my hope, my love my defender, You're my one, You're my Forever

Life has been hard enough, but with Your gentle touch
You give me all the love I need

Whatever I have I'll give You, Wherever I go I'll live to Honor the grace You give to me
