To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Dan Duet is a Catholic in good standing in the Archdiocese of San Antonio and no allegations of sexual abuse of a minor have been brought against him. I am familiar with the content of his ministry presentations and they faithfully represent Catholic teaching.

Mr. Duet is founder of Two-Twelve Ministries (TTM) which he created in response to the call of St. Pope John Paul II for a "New Evangelization" in the Church. The primary purpose of TTM is to proclaim Jesus Christ and His Church through Parish Missions, Concerts, Retreats, and other events with an emphasis on strengthening both the Sacramental and personal relationship one has with Jesus Christ.

TTM, based in San Antonio, TX is a Catholic ministry that adheres to the teaching authority of the Roman Catholic Church with the blessing of the Archbishop of San Antonio. It is a non-profit organization, registered as such in the State of Texas.

Mr. Dan Duet is a talented musician who utilizes his musical skills along with his gifts as a speaker to evangelize. He enjoys engaging his audience including entire families and children. He is quite effective in his ministry and has won the respect of the many parishes and groups with which he has worked.

Any kindness that your Diocese may extend him will be greatly appreciated. Thank you for your ministry.

In Divine Providence,

Sister Jane Ann Slater, CDP
