

SOMEDAY SOON

Someday soon we shall see Jesus coming down for you and me
All the trials of this life will one day disappear
And we'll be free

There'll be no sadness, no parting there
No more heartache, no grief to bear
Someday Christ will appear
Someday soon

Gates of pearl, streets of gold and loved ones
Waiting on the other shore
Possessions that we hold so dear, they won't mean a thing
We won't need them anymore

There'll be no sadness, no parting there
No more heartache, no grief to bear
Someday Christ will appear
Someday soon

There'll be no sadness, no parting there
No more heartache, no grief to bear
Someday Christ will appear
Someday soon
