

Blue Holler

Keeping Bluegrass Traditions

Blue Holler is South Georgia and North Florida's award-winning premier acoustic Bluegrass band

Since 2004 Blue Holler has performed a mixture of traditional, contemporary, jazz-influenced and gospel bluegrass music, impressing audiences at every venue performance. From an early age these multi talented men have continued to honed their musical skills performing at regional venues in Georgia, Florida, and Alabama. Blue Holler Band's instrumental perfection combined with impressive family style harmonies are unforgettable.

Awards collected by members of the Blue Holler includes Georgia State Banjo Champion Brandon Gandy, Georgia State Fiddle Champion Skylar Gandy, and Member of Atlanta Country Music Hall of Fame Seabie Ewer. In 2020 Blue Holler competed and placed 6th out of 20 bands in the SPBGMA International Band Contest in Nashville, Tn.

Heavy influences from traditional artists such as Earl Scruggs, Bill Monroe, Jimmy Martin and Tony Rice provide the foundational roots of Blue Holler's sound. Influences from other artists including John Hartford, Kenny Smith, Lonesome River Band, and Etta James bring exciting facets to the Blue Holler Band's sound.

Blue Holler has performed at festivals, auditoriums, radio stations, churches, coffee shops, and other venues including Everett's Music Barn (GA), Holiday Hills Music Park (FL), Hill Side Bluegrass festival(GA), Rivertown Days(GA), Great Southern Music Festival(GA), Henderson Bluegrass(AL), Farmers Appreciation Days(GA), Sun-Belt Agricultural Exposition(GA), Whigham Rattlesnake Round Up(GA), Colquitt County Arts Center(GA), Thomasville Municipal Auditorium(GA), Gulf Coast Bluegrass and Music Festival(FL), Thomas County Cultural Center (GA), Pebble Hill Plantation(GA), Bradfordville Blues Club(FL), Heart of Bluegrass Alzheimer's Project and many other plantation venues and private engagements.
