

Putting the shoes of the Gospel of Peace
to the Pavement.

Royce has been quoted as saying:

“I've spent many years in professional music, sharing the platform with the finest singers, musicians, performers, and friends. I've been blessed to sing from sea to shining sea, across the sea, and on land and sea. I've sung to the 10,000's and the 10's all in the same week.” However, ask him why he continues to sing after 50 years and he'll tell you;

“I SING BECAUSE GOD TOLD ME TO,
I PREACH BECAUSE HE CALLED ME TO.”

Weather it is his roots of Gospel Quartet music and the time spent with the Stamps Quartet, the Blackwood Singers, the Elvis' Imperials or singing Oldies Rock'n Roll with the Vogues hit making vocal group. His desire is to “Entertain and Inspire” therefore fulfilling his motto of: Putting the Shoes of the Gospel of Peace to the Pavement.
