

MARY ANN SENT ME

Verse

Oh no, this chair's not taken; sure, you can have a light.
What's that? What am I doin' here? Well, I hope you've got all night.
It was raining on the highway and I couldn't see the road.
So I got off this exit and headed for the neon glow.

Verse

Did you say you left somebody, too? Guess it's the going thing.
You're not looking past a friendly talk; but who knows where this could end.
I wish that I could think of all those clever come on lines.
But right now words escape me and it's more than just the wine.
You see,

Chorus

Mary Ann sent me and she led me here to you.
But she forgot to stay behind; her memory came here too.
If I tried to hold you now I know it's her I'd see.
If you're wonderin' what I'm doin' here,
Mary Ann sent me.

Verse

You see I left her long ago, when it was mine to chose.
Now she's had a change of heart; that's what some hearts will do.
Damn, you know I loved her so; it's not like me to leave.
I wouldn't be here as a rule, but Mary Ann sent me.

Chorus

Mary Ann sent me and she led me here to you.
But she forgot to stay behind and her memory came here too.
And if I tried to hold you now I know it's her I'd see.
So don't ask me what I'm doin' here.
Mary Ann sent me.

Verse

Thank you for your honesty; thank you for your time.
I'm here with a memory I can't leave behind.
Guess it's time to go now; can't say how real it's been.
Maybe I'll pass through here when my heart's had time to mend.

Chorus

Mary Ann sent me and she led me here to you.
But she forgot to stay behind and her memory came here too.
And if I tried to hold you now I know it's her I'd see.
So don't ask me why I came here.
Mary Ann sent me.
