

LA DI DA

Music and Lyrics by Delaney Gibson
Additional Lyrics by Chris Jay

La, La di da, La di da, da
You got me singin'

Everybody's looking for
Somebody worth fighting for
Me I need a little more
Than constant complications

You look like a casualty
But, baby that's okay with me
I've always been attracted to Natural disasters

Who, what, where and why
You never know if you don't try

I'm sweet on you
So sweet on you
I'm sweet on you

Never been that good with names
Always going down in flames
I'm just looking for a change
A temporary landing

Lower down your arms for me
It may not be a victory
At least it's something I can see
I little bit of contact

Who, what, where and why
You never know if you don't try

Chorus

Over and over again
Over and over again
The sands of time
Are no friends of mine
But, I'll be here waiting in line

Chorus

Everybody's looking for
Somebody worth fighting for
Everybody's looking for
Somebody worth fighting for