

MY LULLABY GOT TOO LOUD

let's see now

D

night time cozy time rub your baby eyes

the sandman sprinkles dust in them and that makes you feel alright jammies stuffies and right to bed I tried to write a lullaby but instead

D A C A

C

A

it got too loud I meant to whisper this tune to you as you drifted off to sleep

D

G

D

C

G

my lullaby was meant to help a baby chill out but somehow it got too loud

D

it got too loud

D

bedtime sunsets and goodnight moon cozy under covers it'll be sleepy time soon

how bout we shout about it and have a party instead so much more fun than bed

D A C A

C

A

so let's get loud all I wanted to sing was quiet and tender and hush now child

D

G

D

C

G

my lullaby was meant to help a baby chill out but somehow it got too loud

D

it got too loud

solo D G

A

A A# B C

started out tiny little and sweet something that I'd whisper quietly

C B A# A

slowly over time I added more sound

G

A

'till it got so loud that I could not turn it down

D

C G

this was gonna be my lullaby (but it got too loud)

C

C D

this was gonna be my lullaby (but it got too loud)