

EARLY MORNING EARLY EVENING

C A# G# D7
now it's early morning birds all beep and sing
F G# D#
happy to flap flap flap their wings
C A# G# D7
now it's early evening flew so far and wide
F G# D#
a nest is the best place to hide

C A# G# D7
now it's early morning the centepedes are long
F G# D#
hundreds of legs going strong
C A# G# D7
now it's early evening the centepedes are beat
F G# D#
hundreds of tiny tired feet

C A# G# D7
now it's early morning clouds on mountain tops
F G# D#
let go of their rainy drops
C A# G# D7
now it's early evening clouds float home to sleep
F G# D#
in the rivers lakes and streams

C A# G# D7
now it's early morning flowers open wide
F G# D#
fields of color burning bright
C A# G# D7
now it's early evening pedals want to close
F G# D#
time to snooze time to doze

C A# G# D7
now it's early morning frogs are born to jump

F G# D#
jump jump jump from stump to stump

C A# G# D7
now it's early evening sleepy frogs all frown

F G# D#
turn your frog bed side light down

C A# G# D7
now it's early morning people go go go

F G# D#
most go fast but some go slow

C A# G# D7
now it's early evening seven days gone by

F G# D# C D7
tomorrow comes when you close your eyes (3)
