

JOHN MOUSEY

G D G D
john mousey he was a funny little thing he sat upon his mother's knee

G D
pointed at a trap and said out loud

D A D G
that mouse trap's gonna be the end of me whoa whoa

D A G
that mouse trap's gonna be the end of me

G D G D
john mousey grew up in a garden in the shade just out side a house in the woods

G D
one day he smelled a sweet and smelly smell

D A D G
oh my my that smell it smells go good yum yum

D A G
oh my my that smell it smells so good

G D G D
he followed the trail and found a hunk of cheese stuck in a big bad trap (oh no)

G D
he shivered and he shook at the thought of that sweet treat

D A D G
he'd have to be mighty mighty fast zoom zoom

D A G
he'd have to be mighty mighty fast

G D G D
john mousey took off like an arrow from a bow so fast he left his shadow on the ground

G D
that cheese was his and the trap was empty so

D A D G
the legend of john mousey got around hey hey

D A G
the legend of john mousey got around

G D G D
time after time john mousey took the bait cheese and fruit and peanut butter too (yum)
G D
his legend it grew but so did his waist
D A D G
john mousey that mouse trap might get you yes yes
D A G
john mousey that mouse trap might get you

G D G D
late one summer night after eating all day through there was one more treat to be had
G D
john mousey that trap just got the better of you
D A D G
oh my my it's gonna turn out bad whoa whoa
D A G
oh my my it's gonna turn out bad

G D G D
lucky for john mousey the lady of the house used a brand of trap that was humane
G D
today was not his last but his last in her yard
D A D G
she released him at the bottom of the lane go go D A G
she released him at the bottom of the lane

G D
so open up your eyes and keep your ear to the ground
G D
you may catch John Mousey by your house
G D
you'll miss him if you blink and he may not make a sound
D A G
John Mousey is a trap dodgin' mouse yes yes
D A G
John Mousey is a trap dodgin' mouse yes yes
D A G
John Mousey is a trap dodgin' mouse
