OTHER WAYS TO SHOW YOUR SUPPORT

The Native American Music Association, a 501(c)(3), directly assists Native American musicians and continues to educate the general public throughout the year. Our major programs include:

- 1) Finding innovative ways to showcase our artists and share their music with national and mainstream radio outlets & syndicated radio programs,
- 2) Creating a free listen & vote station on our website for the general public featuring digitized audio & video tracks
- 3) Offering free downloadable music, special cd & dvd projects for radio, community & Public television, and the public at large
- 3) Youth Suicide Prevention bracelets saying “We Are Here For You” bracelet for distribution to our artists & their communities,
- 4) Emergency financial assistance for musicians with health issues, or personal emergencies where assistance is needed
- 5) Emergency heat assistance for families with elders & young children
- 6) Establishing and maintaining the world’s largest music and performance video archive of Native artists,
- 7) Creating new performance opportunities for award-winning and nominated artists for inclusion at major concerts & festivals,
- 8) To create and distribute an electronic national artist contact directory for music festivals & booking agents to increase performance opportunities (New)
- 9) Maintaining a voice with the Grammys to ensure the inclusion of both traditional and contemporary Native American music
- 10) Holding a seat on the Grammys and sending a NAMA representative to participate in the screening committee meetings each year
