

Elena Degl'Innocenti

Elena is a songwriter, singer, guitarist, and dedicated teaching artist in residence at U.C.L.A Recreation - Children Music Programs (0-5 years old). With over a decade of teaching experience, she has taught children music programs for preschoolers at ELAC - Child Development and at We Rock The Spectrum- Kids Gym. Her classes are filled with songs she writes and include fun and active games and exercises that help teach the fundamentals of music and movement: Rhythm, Pitch and Melody.

Experience

- UCLA- University of California, Los Angeles
Music group teacher for children (age 1-4) at UCLA Recreation Youth & Instruction Programs.
- ELAC- Child Development Center (East Los Angeles College)- Taught Pre-K Music Programs.
- Guitar, Voice, Songwriting, vocal performance Private Teacher- Private one on one lessons.
- We Rock The Spectrum Gym- Taught toddlers Music Classes.
- California Music Academy- Taught voice and guitar for kids age 7-14. Private one on one lessons.

Education

- University of California LA Extension - Songwriting & Composition Certificate
- University of California LA Extension - Music Business Certificate
- Musician's Institute, Hollywood CA - Vocal Studies and Vocal Performance Certificate
- University of Florence, Italy - Psychology BA
- Music Academy 2000 - Bologna, Italy - Vocal Studies
- Berkley College Of Music - Jazz Vocal Studies Summer Program