

STEEL UNION

Three unique artists. One dobro. Countless harmonies. A chance encounter proved to be destiny when Rachel Potter met Donny Fallgatter and Josh Matheny in a Nashville bar one fate-filled evening.

A former Broadway star and X Factor finalist, Potter's powerhouse vocals melt into Matheny's gentle twang and Fallgatter's rich tone, serving up the perfect recipe for sweet country success. Their catchy lyrics, soulful melodies and seamless stage presence instantly captured audiences and garnered attention from the prestigious NASH FM station, where they landed 4th place in the Nash Next's Country Superstar Competition.

From a memorable CMA night performing at Whiskey Jam in Nashville, to an opening slot for Blues Traveler in Chattanooga, STEEL UNION is quickly stamping their place in the hearts and homes of the country music community.
