

ALTERNATIVE LOVE

Music / Lyrics Richard Jellinek

1 VERSE

How could I let him to hurt you
How left alone for life
Too young and shy to make a move
Now it's too late
Standing at the crossroads and both paths are wrong
When life is getting bitter it is easy to get choke

BRIDGE

The rain is falling on me, washing dawn my tears
The night is getting colder and seems to me so deep
I'm staring at your window, waiting there outside
For my chance, for my hope to live. To live another life!

CHORUS

Another life, and our love in parallel universe
Where no one can hurt you, where I will protect you
And I'll be there for you
And I do believe we can live this life we've been always dreaming about
And this right place for our alternative love!

One touch away but still so far someone's stolen my dreams
Your smile is so full of beauty,
Thru your tears
Show must go on Fake happy life
Long lonely nights
Still Something is missing... something is not right, not right...
