

Hammond Art Guild Adult Summer Art Camp 2019

Week 1 July 15 – 19... 9am-12pm Exploration of Color Roland A. Guidry, Instructor

Under 18 with permission of the instructor

Classes to be held at Hammond Regional Arts Center, 217 E. Thomas, Hammond La 70401

- Explanation of basic color theory
- Exercises to explore color schemes for approaching art projects
- Color harmony, color Mixing and blending for various mediums
- Novice to more experienced individuals are welcome to participate

The workshop will meet 9-12 am the mornings of the first week of Hammond Art Guild Adult Art Camp

Maximum of 8 participants

Fee: $75

Instructor will provide basic acrylic color, brushes and printed work sheets for specific exercises. Afterwards, the participant must supply their own work surfaces suitable for their medium. Participants will supply their tools and supplies for their preferred medium.

Supplies list for other needs will be provided, but very low cost or found items easily available.

The instructor will provide access to a large inventory of other supplies from his personal studio for trial exercises or teaching purposes and experimenting with mixing mediums.

The focus of exercises will be to understand various approaches to color usage across several mediums and art techniques to further an understanding of the use of color to create harmonious and interesting art works. The projects will focus on small scale works based on photographic images provided by the participants. The objective is to work quickly and experiment as much as possible, not to create a larger finished artwork.
