WONDERFUL WORLD

Los Angeles based jazz/pop a cappella group m-pact is thrilled to announce the release of their new EP, "Wonderful World". This is the band's fourth EP, in addition to their discography of five full-length albums and several single-song releases. "Wonderful World", which was released on all platforms on August 24, 2018, is an unapologetically eclectic collection of 7 brand-new tracks combined with the group's 2018 CARA-winning single, "Come Together".

In addition to stellar new vocal arrangements by band members Andy Degan, Jamond McCoy, and Tracy Robertson, the group also culled the m-pact archives to discover a treasure trove of hidden gems which had never been recorded - and in some cases, never performed - before. "This project was an opportunity for us to make a statement about who m-pact is today", said artistic director Jeff Smith, "while also shining a light on the legacy of the group's musical history, which we're so proud to be a part of."

The EP takes the listener on a musical journey, featuring m-pact's signature vocal renderings of pop tunes, jazz standards, choral works, and even a Disney ballad. With pristine in-house recording and production by Smith (mixing) and Aaron Schumacher (editing), "Wonderful World" is an exciting new addition to the band's 23-year catalog and will no doubt be a fan favorite for years to come.
