New York, NY - The International Youth Philharmonic releases a new recording on the Kanca Media label on June 22. The release features Conductor Jose Luis Gomez as he brings to life compositions that celebrate the raw beauty and power of nature and the hope for peace among nations – a dazzling live debut recording of Kennedy's commissioned work Kaku, Kupala | Fear in Neutral Buoyancy and the evocative multi-movement recording of Kanca's Vox in Terra Suite. These special recordings live from Carnegie Hall marked the finale of a successful month long concert series in and around the greater New York City metropolitan area.

Of the performance, Loralia LLC Global Ventures wrote, "It truly was a celebration of the collaboration of diverse cultures. The dynamic performance exemplified that when people collaborate from all over the world, they can create a better world to promote peace, and, in this case, raise awareness for universal youth issues. What a magnificent message brought through music!"

The International Youth Philharmonic includes more than 100 young musicians from more than 70 countries for this debut recording. The Venezuelan-born, Spanish conductor, José Luis Gomez, was catapulted to international attention when he won First Prize at the International Sir Georg Solti Conductor's Competition in Frankfurt in September 2010, securing a sensational and rare, unanimous decision from the jury. Composer Faruk Kanca is a multi-talented Turkish born composer, conductor, music teacher, music director, writer, pianist and a businessman Sean J. Kennedy is an acclaimed American drumset player, percussionist, recording artist, author and educator.

The release is now available for sale on CDBaby and Amazon. To obtain review copies, or other information on the International Youth Philharmonic, please contact Sevki Faruk Kanca at faruk@kancamedia.com
