

Sweetest Story (I'll Never Know)

What went through Your mind that night You carried out Your plan
Exchanging robes of royalty for the clothes of common man
Slipping quietly into a stable revealing Yourself to just a few in Bethlehem
Who wouldn't fully understand

When You breathed this air did You long to change Your plan to rescue us
Though nothing's too hard for You who could blame You no not one
Like fragile petals from a rose Your plan gently unfolds in a manger
You became my Savior

Chorus

You drew Your first breath and felt the sting of death
You took on my skin You became my sin
The sweetest story told Heaven to earth through a baby boy
Why a King would become like me I'll never know

3.

Because You're constant unlike me You never wavered in Your mission
Though the weight of sin unbearable You bore it in complete submission
To Your word that is exalted high above Your name from the day You came
You were carrying my cross

Bridge

What went through Your mind that night You prayed let this cup pass
Through tears and blood the flesh and Spirit wrestled with the plan
As the spotless Lamb upon the altar You became the way
From Your infant cry to Your final cry
It is finished

Chorus

You drew Your last breath You took the sting of death
Through agony and pain You overcame my shame
No sweeter story told Life through a cross that was meant for death
Why a King would die for me I'll never know

No sweeter story told
A manger a cross for my broken soul
Why a King would become like me
I'll never know
