

He Reigns

Verse 1

Kingdoms rise and kingdoms fall
The nations rage together
This world seems so out of hand
How much more will we have to weather
Some days it's easy to lose focus
But I know that He has never changed
And that's where my hope is

Chorus

Though uncertain all this world around us
He's forever constant
When a man's word is no longer valid
Faithful He remains
When we watch evil called good
And those who seek righteousness are scorned
We know that our redemption draweth nigh
And our King of kings reigns forever

Verse 2

I hear the earth begin to groan
Its surface plagued with man's corruption
Satan tries one final time
To draw souls into his destruction
But he is met with the sound of the people of the Name
Crying out in desperation
And we believe when we pray

Bridge

So let the nations rage
Let the people imagine a vain thing
The hour it is upon us
His return won't be delayed
He said if we would humble ourselves seek His face
He will heal our land, this will come to pass
His word lasts forever
So let come what may.
