

Less Is More

It should have been the greatest thing
It should have been a ball
But somehow came pressure and pain and around me came a wall

A truer love there couldn't be
A truer love than all
But still the rain and the hurricane can make me feel small

And it hurts and I don't know why
But it hurts me inside

I love you, I adore you
And though I may be all at sea know that I love you
The lesson today is to find out the hard way that sometimes less is more

I know I'm over thinking it
I know there's nothing wrong
But I can't help feel what I feel when I toss the night alone

I need you to hold me
And tell me it's alright
I feel kind of wired and way over tired and I won't sleep tonight

And it hurts and I don't know why
But it hurts me inside

I love you, I adore you
And though I may be all at sea know that
I love you and though I may roll out of control know that I love you
The lesson today is to find out the hard way that sometimes less is more
