

Drown In You

It was bright and we sat grinning like frogs on a sunny day
Nothing but to while away a moment in the sun
At the rickety old picnic table out in your backyard
Mint grew in a jar and I had found I'd fallen deep for you

Yes it's true that this could be the way to spend a perfect day
Oh if you only knew I would fall so deep I'd drown in you

You made the weirdest omelet that a man had ever seen
It had mandarins and beans but the Bloody Mary helps
Only 30 days had passed since we opened that door
At first I wasn't sure but I have found I've fallen deep for you

Yes it's true that this could be the way to spend a perfect day
Oh if you only knew I would fall so deep I'd drown in you

[Instrumental Break]

No more waiting
Anticipating
A leap of faith and I have found you've fallen for me too

Yes it's true that this is just the way to spend a perfect day
And now that you know it too, I will fall so deep, I will fall so deep I'll drown in you

Yes it's true that this is just the way to spend a perfect day
And now that you know it too, I will fall so deep I'll drown in you

Yes it's true I hope like hell I don't screw it up this time
