

SINGER~WRITER~ POET~TEACHER

Tom Kimmel

Tom Kimmel is a soulful and unique singer and performer who has captivated audiences from Birmingham to Bhutan, from San Francisco to Stockholm, winning fans and garnering critical acclaim in the worlds of folk, rock and spiritual music.

"Rich melodies and fervent delivery."

—Los Angeles Times

"...his songs have enough personality to fill the concert hall single-handed."

—The Herald, Glasgow Scotland

"A talented singer-songwriter with a flair for striking images."

—Variety

"...songs that will change a lot of lives."

—Cashbox

"A singer/songwriter who possesses the best qualities of John Wesley Harding or John Hiatt—suberb songwriting and raw, hard-driving vocals."

—San Francisco Herald Examiner

"Kimmel has his own 'voice' and it rings with authority. A master poet."

—The Tennessean

[His songs] "have an anthemic, urgent quality earned through sheer quality of songwriting."

—New York Daily News

"Rubs the truth so raw you can see brittle bones beneath. As intimate and honest as a birthday, and as beautiful as blown glass—he deserves a far greater audience than most art (by any definition) ever gets."

—Mountain Xpress

"Kimmel's moody, textured songwriting reaches into soulful realms that few Music Row pros enter."

—Nashville Scene

"A very exceptional talent... [with a] special gift as a writer, singer, instrumentalist, and performer."

—The Album Network

"Kimmel has a pungent, Southern-inflected voice, dark good looks and a commanding stage presence. A highly imagistic body of work that he delivered with drama and authority."

—Austin American-Statesman
