

FIRE BY NIGHT

Written by: Z. Shelton, C. Cunningham, T. Baker

INTRO: Em

VERSE 1:

Em

These worries and these fears just won't let me be

This shadow of my golden doubt is bearing down on me

C

D

My idols think I'm here to bow, but I'm just stronger on my knees

CHORUS 1:

C G D Em

C G D

Life might be a winding road But I just can't see past tomorrow

C G D Em Em

Fire by night and smoke by the day Will light my way, Lord, guide my way

Light my way, Lord, guide my way

VERSE 2:

You tell us to march and that the walls will fall

You say strike the stone to quench the thirst of all

You always see us through, why do we still stand in awe?

CHORUS 2:

C G D Em

C G D

Life might be a winding road But I just can't see past tomorrow

C G D Em Em

Fire by night and smoke by the day Will light my way, Lord, guide my way

C G D Em C G D C G D Em

Light my way, Lord, guide my w - a - y wa - y

BRIDGE:

Em

We'll keep marching, marching to the mountaintop

We'll keep praying, praying that these wheels won't stop

X2

(To CHORUS 1, play twice, then END)
