

MERCY WE DON'T DESERVE

Written by: Z. Shelton

VERSE 1:

B

We see the ripple of the waves that we're walking on

Can't fix our eyes on the water, fix them on the Son

E

We may be far from the shore, but we're not alone

CHORUS 1:

E

B/D#

You give orders to the morning and you show the dawn its place

C#m

B/D#

You satisfy the lion and you give the horse its strength

E

B/D#

You bring forth constellations, scatter lightning across the earth

C#m

B/D#

But my every need is met, and my every prayer is heard

E

I pay no mind to wind cause it can't prevail

Just buckle down, hold my ground, and release the sail

Cutting through the storm to bring this ship on home
