

AUDIENCE OF ONE
Written by: Z. Shelton

INTRO: A Bm A Bm

VERSE 1:

A Bm A/C#
Why have You handed me a sword, but kept me from the battle?
D A
Handed me a sling without a giant to be found?
Bm A/C#
I'd lay next to a lion, if they threw me in a den
D
I'd walk through fire, before I'd bow my head

CHORUS:

A Bm
Show me what it is you need from me
F#m
Aren't I more than just a heart that beats
D
And lungs that need to breathe?
A Bm D A/C# Bm
I know that You would like to be original with my sto- o - ry
D A
But could You tell me if my purpose has begun?
Bm A* Bm A Bm
Til then I'll sing for my audience of one

(*Second time through Chorus, build A to BRIDGE)

VERSE 2:

A Bm
When I don't feel that my faith has moved a mountain
A/C#
That my song has changed a heart
D A
That my story is worth telling, or that it even had a start
Bm A/C#
I think back, to how Jesus' life began
D
He was here to die for me
Now I'm here to live for Him

(To CHORUS)

BRIDGE:

D E F#m
I'm ready and I'm willing, just point and I will go
D E F#m
There may be questions in my mind, but I will hold tight to the hope
D E F#m
That my steps are microscopic to His plan that will unfold
D
And this life is just an opener for the Show
A
Maybe, I'm right where I need to be

FINAL CHORUS:

A Bm
Show me what it is you need from me
F#m
Aren't I more than just a heart that beats
D
And lungs that need to breathe?
A Bm D A/C# Bm
I know that You would like to be original with my sto- o - ry
D A
But could You tell me if my purpose has begun?
Bm A Bm A Bm
Til then I'll sing for my audience of one
A Bm A Bm
God, you're my audience of one
