Caesar Rodney was one of our greats,
His race to Philly made us the First State.
Now Richard Pett's at the Dover track,
And Caesar's a statue with pigeons on his hat. Chorus

We're the home of the Du Pont Company,
Blue Hen football and the wing-T.
George Thorogood, the Phanatic and Music Loop Night,
And Dewey Beach—A WAY OF LIFE. Chorus

So, come see Delaware and make sure
Not to miss the famous furniture at Winterthur.
There's history galore, and four race tracks,
So get here quick, 'cus there's no sales tax! Chorus

Tell you how to get here—it won't take long;
We're across the river from Jersey, like in the song.
We're next to Philadelphia, and Mary Land too,
And the Chesapeake Canal cuts us right in two. Chorus

All the folks back home would sure be sickened,
If I forgot to mention our friends the chickens;
The Fighting Blue Hen is our state fowl,
And they pretty much run things below the canal. Chorus
