Any Other Name Music LLC is proud to announce the release of Lisa Coppola's new EP, 'Perfectly Imperfect', coming on Thursday, November 15th, 2018. The EP is the follow up to the highly successful winner of the 2017 Josie Award for Best Modern Country song by a female vocalist 'Just A Little Time', which charted on over 20 stations worldwide including four #1 placements.

'Perfectly Imperfect', written by Lisa Coppola, indie star Ray Powers, touring artist Robert Stephen Viola, Trop-Rock Indie chart-topper Robin Tricker and Anthony Micheli, is an infectious country/rock/alt blues group of songs that beg for repeat plays with a big hooks and sing-a-long lyrics. The EP will speak to anyone who has experienced heartbreak, the incredibly feeling you get from being a friend or the down time of a break-up. It's about accepting all the upsides and the downsides, it's what makes us all part of the human family.

After the success of 'Just A Little Time', Lisa went on to win the 2018 Josie Award for Best Musical Collaboration for her vocals on Annemarie Picerno's epic work 'Bonfire' which featured name Nashville artists Jimmy Parker, Donna Jo, Steve Owen, Benny Pitsinger, radio legend Gene Pierro and Producer Bob McGilpin.

Lisa's a highly-respected vocalist and artist who has got quite a history and has worked with the likes of Billy Joel, Anthony Krizan (Spin Doctors), Pat DiNizio (Smithereens), Marshall Crenshaw, Glen Burtnik and many more.

The EP will be available on iTunes, Amazon, Spotify, and all other download and streaming sites.
