Lisa Coppola’s
“Perfectly Imperfect”
nails nomination for Best EP
in the 2019 Josie Awards!

Any Other Name Music is proud to announce the nomination of Lisa Coppola’s EP, ‘Perfectly Imperfect’ for Best EP in the 2019 Josie Awards. The EP is the follow up to the highly successful winner of the 2017 Josie Award for Best Modern Country song by a female vocalist ‘Just A Little Time’ written by Lisa Coppola and John Taglieri. ‘Just A Little Time’ charted on over 20 stations worldwide including four #1 placements. Lisa also contributed vocals to the 2018 Josie Award for Best Musical Collaboration winner, ‘Bonfire’, Annemarie Picerno’s epic work. ‘Bonfire’ also featured name Nashville artists Jimmy Parker, Donna Jo, Steve Owen, Benny Pitsinger, radio legend Gene Pierro and Producer Bob McGilpin.

‘Perfectly Imperfect’, written by Lisa Coppola, indie star Ray Powers, touring artist Robert Stephen Viola, Trop-Rock Indie chart-topper Robin Tricker and Anthony Michelini, is an infectious country/rock/alt blues group of songs that beg for repeat plays with big hooks and sing-a-long lyrics. The EP will speak to anyone who has experienced heartbreak, the incredible feeling you get from being a friend or the down time of a break-up. It’s about accepting all the upsides and the downsides, it’s what makes us all part of the human family.

The single “Invincible” received the honor of being the # 1 requested song of 2018 on New Visions Radio and peaked at #5 on the Radio Indie Alliance worldwide aggregate chart.

Lisa’s a highly-respected vocalist and artist who has quite a history and has worked with the likes of Billy Joel, Anthony Krizan (Spin Doctors), Pat DiNizio (Smithereens), Marshall Crenshaw, Glen Burtnik and many more. She performs live frequently as part of the show band 80s Revolution, Slow Hands: The Eric Clapton Tribute and with her own band Lisa Coppola and Friends.

The EP is available on Apple Music, Amazon, Spotify, and all other download and streaming sites.
