

iaci-usa.org

Irish American Cultural Institute

a not-for-profit organization committed to the exploration and appreciation of Irish culture.

Rochester Chapter

Finding Irish Roots: Hands-on computer workshop sessions with Genealogist Dennis Hogan

Tuesday, March 1st 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Course I Learn how to use US records as one step toward finding ancestors in Irish records.

Thursday, March 3rd 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Course II - Searching Irish Records for your Ancestors

- Hands-on format in a computer lab with one participant per computer.
- Workshops will be “friendly” for all levels of computer experience. Prior internet usage recommended.
- Bring your questions and family examples.

St. John Fisher College
Ralph Wilson Room 115

Use Parking Lot A/B at main entry to Campus...then follow IACI signs

Pre-registration is Required. Attendance limited to number of computers available.

$10 General Admission payable at the door. Covers both workshops

No charge for IACI members, Fisher students, staff, faculty

Dennis Hogan is a professional genealogist specializing in New York State and Irish research. Since 2003 he has been teaching courses about Irish genealogy. All 8 of his great-grandparents emigrated from Ireland and settled in or near Ontario County, New York.

To register or for more information contact Elizabeth Osta @ 586-9947 or e-mail iacirochester@gmail.com.