

iaci-usa.org

Irish American Cultural Institute

a not-for-profit organization committed to the exploration and appreciation of Irish culture.

Rochester Chapter

Another Chance to Find Your Irish Roots: Workshop with Genealogist Dennis Hogan

Tuesday, November 8, 2011

7:00 p.m.

St. John Fisher College

Wegman School of Nursing Room 100

Use Parking Lot C ...then follow IACI signs

This workshop will focus on Griffith's Valuation Records

THE most important resource for those researching ancestors in Ireland at the time of the famine.

The story of Griffith's Valuation provides an interesting backstory at the time of great tragedy in Ireland.

Participants will learn how to use Griffith's at no cost from the comfort of their home.

$10 General Admission payable at the door.

No charge for IACI members, Fisher students, staff, faculty

Dennis Hogan is a professional genealogist specializing in New York State and Irish research. Since 2003 he has been teaching courses about Irish genealogy. All 8 of his great-grandparents emigrated from Ireland and settled in or near Ontario County, New York.

To register or for more information contact Maureen Scahill @ 288-3784 or e-mail iacirochester@gmail.com.