

Scott was born and educated in the Pacific Northwest at the finest public schools your tax dollars could possibly provide. Largely self taught Scott developed his playing style in local sessions with various musicians playing multiple styles. He also is a mystery even to himself at times.

As well as bass guitar Scott also plays the double bass and the guitar. He currently is playing basses by Ibanez and Spanish guitars by Pavan.