

"Amanda serenades with her beautiful voice, soaring melodies and Midwest inspired banter. She is a vision of grace and poise!"

"...the Perfect Blend of Passion & Old World Charm for an electrifying, unforgettable night!"

Amanda Beagle

sings favorites from

The Italian-American Songbook

A New York City based Soprano, Amanda's singing has taken her all over the world; from entertaining international audiences aboard luxury cruise liners to serenading in Lucca, Italy.

She made her NYC debut at Lincoln Center and recently released her newest show and recording, "The Italian-American Songbook," at the famed Metropolitan Room in NYC. Amanda competed live on-stage at Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City as Miss Ohio 2004, winning the talent award at the iconic Miss America Pageant.

Influenced by her Italian heritage, Amanda breathes new passion into billboard favorites and homeland classics. Crossing the worlds of Jazz, Classical and 50s & 60s Pop, Amanda pays tribute to the likes of Connie Francis, Rosemary Clooney, Andrea Bocelli, Perry Como, Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Laura Pausini, Sarah Brightman, Luciano Pavarotti - and many more!

A classical singer with pop sensibilities, Amanda is known for her beautiful expressive singing, her distinguished grace and poise, and her Midwest inspired banter and humor. Whether it's an audience of 50 or 5,000, Amanda connects with every crowd with ease and authenticity.

Equipped to perform with a 6 piece band, solo piano or backing tracks, Amanda has a program suitable for a variety of settings and occasions including Italian Festivals, Special Events, and Performing Arts Series. She has entertained international audiences at home and at sea! Now is the time for her to entertain you!

"Not only is she beautiful, she possesses a beautiful voice - a lovely burnished soprano who sings with superb pitch, intonation and diction, and with great expression as well. I loved her stories and the show was absolutely delightful!"
