

The Humble-Bee

Sharon Scholl

Ralph Waldo Emerson

126 cheerful, moving along MF

Soprano

Burl - y, doz - ing hum - ble - bee,

Piano

MP

5

S

where thou art is clime for me. Let them sail for Por - to Rique, Pno.

5

9

S

far - off heats thru' seas to seek; I will fol - low - thee a lone, thou

Pno.

9

13

S an - i - ma - ted tor - rid zone!

Pno.

17

S

Zig - zag steer - er, des - ert cheer - er, let me chase - thy wav - ing lines.

Pno.

21

S

Keep me near - er, me thy hear - er, sing - ing o - ver shrubs and vines.

Pno.

25

S

MP subdued

When the south wind in May days

Pno.

29

S

with a net of shin - ing haze sil - vers the hor - i - zon wall,

Pno.

33

S

and with soft - ness touch - ing all, tints the hu - man coun - te - nance

Pno.

37

S

with a col - or of ro - mance, and in - fus - ing sub - tle - heats

Pno.

41

S

turns the sod to vi - o - lets.

Pno.

46

S

In - sect lov - er of the sun, joy of thy do - min - i - on! Sail - or of the at - mos - phere, swim - mer thru' the Pno.

Pno.

50

S

54

S

waves of air, voy - a - ger of light and noon, ep - i - cur - e -

Pno.

58

S

an of June, Wait, I pri - thee till - I come with - in ear - shot

Pno.

62

S

of thy hum. All with - out is mar - tyr - dom.

62

Pno.

MP and fading

66

S

66

Pno.