other entertainment agents. I and music, and musicians because I successful musician myself. Therefore, a unique position to negotiate with entertainers and properly to their abilities.

other musicians. I have a successful record in business, sales, and Food and Beverage. Therefore, I have a better understanding of the 'bottom line' and the of my clients.

agents, concerned only of their vision, are middlemen who are not enough to the performing artist the clients' needs.

needed are agents who not only about the music, the clients, and the others, but agents who actually know about all the above too. That's my company comes in.
